The image displays a four-system musical score for piano. Each system consists of two staves: a right-hand staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a left-hand staff with a treble clef and the same key signature. The right-hand part is characterized by dense, arpeggiated chords, while the left-hand part provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The first system includes fingering numbers 2, 3, and 3 above the right-hand staff. The second system includes fingering numbers 4, 5, 4, and 3 above the right-hand staff. The third and fourth systems continue the musical patterns without additional fingering numbers.

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs, with some triplets. The middle staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one sharp. It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a key signature of one sharp, containing a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs, with some triplets. The middle staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one sharp. It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a key signature of one sharp, containing a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs.

The third system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs, with some triplets. The middle staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one sharp. It contains a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a key signature of one sharp, containing a series of eighth notes, mostly beamed in pairs. The system concludes with a double bar line and a final chord. The word "pizz." is written above the middle staff, indicating a pizzicato effect.
